Brave Women Fight Fire. Last Friday afternoon the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nummer was discovered to be on fire and a general fire alarm was spread by telephone by the people who discov-ered it. Realizing that the fire would have gained considerable headway before any volunteer fire fighters could arrive on the scene, Mrs. Nummer crawled through a window in the house and out on the roof of the burning building. Mrs. Will Krick carried water and Mrs. Nummer district water water and Mrs. Nummer district water water and Mrs. Nummer district water w rected this so as to make every drop count and these brave women had the fire extinguished before any of the men who left their work in answer to the fire alarm arrived on the scene. It is supposed that the fire started from sparks from the kitchen fire. The damage was small.

"It's much too hot to work today! Said Jimmy at the bench;
Said Bill: "I guess we'd better stay,
It's hotter in a trench.
An' if those boys can stick it out
We needn't quit and loaf about."

"I'm kinder tired of workin' here!" Said Charley at the drill,
"I think I'll draw my pay an' clear."
"Just wait a bit!" said Bill. "Don't qu't your job until you're fired. The boys in France are also tired.

The Worried Soldier.

He was dreaming through the drilling, he was half a step behind,

He was marching like a sold er who had something on his mind.

And the colonel who was watching as his boys were on review, uldn't understand the trouble, but the sergeant-major knew.

Once he broke the line by missing the command to make a wheel, And they thundered curses at him till h s brain began to reel?
His captain called him lazy, his lieutenant scored him, too,
And they wondered why he faltered,
but the sergeant-major knew.

When at last the drill was over and the line had been dismissed,
They put the blundering soldier of their extra duty list.

But the sergeant-major saved him when the colonel heard him say: "He hasn't-had a letter fom his folks

Would you help him in his battle, would you keep his mind in trim? Then send some cheerful message ev. ery day or two to him.

Every sold er understands it, when they're pasing out the mail
The boy who s forgotten is the boy who's sure to fail.

The Misses Carrie Reeger and Retta Beemer, Mrs. Knox, Mrs. Burns and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Kelly were also along with the party which left here early Tuesday morning for the campmeeting party which left here early Tuesday morning for the campmeeting grounds at Manton. Some of them will remain only for a short time, but Mr. Francisco, who is a delegate will remain throughout the campmeeting period and also through the district conference which takes place immediately afterward. There are also a number of other members of the deposition in this city who will atnomination in this city who will attend the meetings at some time or another while they are being held.

"O BROTHER OF MINE."

O, Brother of Mine, you will never What mail time means to us out in the front line trenches In all that awful fuss.

With Fritz's high explosives
Dropping round like hail,
And our pals, God help them, in pieces We watch for the overseas mail.

On With the Firing Squad.

"I wonder how long we'll continue to be a health resort for spies,"
And other industrious gentlemen that the papers or ticise!

The place for an agent of Kaiser Bill is six feet under the sod.

I want to hear some corporal yell:

"Fall in the firing squad!"

"'Arrested', 'interned' or 'out on bail'
—it's ever the same old song;
And we lay the paper aside to remark:
'How long, O God, how long!' We've seen enough devilment this past year to arouse the wrath of God! Then what is it we are waiting for. 'Come on with the firing squad!'"

A Great Registration.

More than 3,250,00 women have registered for war service, according to the records of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense. No other war in all history has shown such a reliance on woman's aid and in none other have women had so much at stake in the event of the enemy triumphing.
